The lodge is moving forward in find fashion. March was an eventful month for apache Lodge No. 69. We had the honor or receiving the Right Worshipful Deputy Grand Master Michael T. Bishop for his official visit. He was accompanied by Right Worshipful Junior Grand Warden D. Brook Cunningham and the Worshipful Senior Grand Deacon Michael Meier. We were equally blessed with a visit by two Past Grand Masters from the great state of Washington on that same day. My thanks go out to all the officers and brethren for putting their best foot forward (specially on such notice) for a great evening. Special thanks to Brother Carlos Villanueva and his wife Anne for their efforts in putting together such a wonderful meal.

April is looking to be an eventful month as well. In addition to our bi-weekly dance lessons (this month it's the tango), we should be initiating another brother into the fraternity (check lodge website calendar at www.ApacheLodge69.com for details) this will be our first effort a doing the lecture on the degree as a lodge rather than having an individual lecturer. Join us if you can, it should be a great experience for the candidate and a new experience for the brethren.

As always, please join us for the stated meeting night, April's meeting is on the 9th, dinner to served at 6:00pm and the meeting begins at 7:30pm. WE LOOK FORWARD TO HAVING YOU THERE. Remember, if you need a ride, contact the "Catch a ride" committee and we'll arrange to get you to lodge. We pledge hat no brother will be unable to attend lodge for lack of a ride.
