Greetings Brethren,

Apache has been very busy this past month with degree work and next month we have degrees scheduled every Thursday, except our stated meeting.

Please come support the officers as they become proficient for next year and marvel at their ritual as our ritual is the best in the state... At lease in my opinion.

Bring the whole family to our stated meeting and join with us in food and fellowship.

See you in Lodge,
Jody Murphy
Acting Worshipful Master

Brothers,

Please take a moment and look at your Apache Lodge No.69 membership card. If doesn't have 2014 for the year on it, then we need to remedy that.

The income from membership dues is needed from each Brother in order to support the efforts of your Lodge. Support your Lodge by paying your dues.

Fraternally,
John Sheets

... to those who give us heritage

Greetings Apache Lodge,

Thank you so much for the beautiful flowers presented at the last stated meeting. A lovely and unexpected surprise.

The Job's Daughters will hold regular business meetings on April 4th and April 18th this month. Meetings start at 7pm and you are always welcome to visit.

The Rainbow Assembly will hold regular business meetings on Saturday, April 12th at 10am and Monday, April 28th at 7pm. They will also be having a Home-coming Celebration on Saturday, April 26th at 10am to Welcome Grand Worthy Advisor, Haley Ackert, back to the Assembly as she nears the end of her year of traveling across the state representing Rainbow Girls.

The menu for the stated meeting dinner on April 10th will be Lasagne, garlic bread, salad and dessert served by the friendly members of Bethel 13. The price of dinner has been lowered to $5 per person. Family is always welcome to attend the dinners so why not bring them out to enjoy dinner and fellowship with the Apache Lodge family?

Brethren,

... from the South

I am impressed by our rituals and proficiencies. It shows the officers and candidates are duly and truly prepared. I would like to remind everyone that our rituals and proficiencies do not end once delivered in front of the brethren at Lodge. It is not only for memorization but rather for experiencing. We should not only be able to recite the obligation but we should live it! The elder Brothers should role model it, and the new Brothers should start living it. I would like to point out 2 of my favorite lines:

1. To learn to subdue my passions
2. To circumscribe our desires and keep our passions within due bounds toward all mankind, particularly our brethren in freemasonry.

These are powerful words and should be our guide for treating each other in meetings, discussions and even arguments inside and outside the lodge. This will ensure that we continue to respect each other despite our disagreements, and prevent disharmony and contentions among us. Let Brotherly love always prevail.

Hope to see you all soon,
Ross Carballo
Junior Warden

Brethren,

... from the West

It is a good thing to see Brothers on the sideline during our Stated Meetings and some on the sidelines in our Degree Work.

Attendance at degree work shows support and encouragement for the Candidate. If the work is done correctly, it also gives you an opportunity to learn or refresh your knowledge on any particular part. When you see the part done again and again you can unconsciously memorize the work. The downside is that, if the part is done incorrectly or words mispronounced you can also absorb the mistakes as correct. If there is any doubt, look it up in your ritual after the meeting.

With job opportunities out of the area, sickness and injuries, there is usually an opportunity to serve in a temporarily empty officer chair. Please let the Acting Master or Master know if you wish to serve in this manner. Even if you are a newer Mason you can and should serve when opportunity presents itself. Step out and step up to enjoy your Masonic experience even more!

I hope to see you in Lodge soon!
Mac McClintock, KICM
